THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1892.

RECENT REFLECTIONS.

-Herington's fair and race meeting will be the county's big event this week.

-J. P. Campbell and Capt. Reagan will be among the stars in next week's home talent drama.

-E. W. Wellington who owns the Brady block is running for Representative on the Republican ticket in Elisworth county.

-Herington has decided to have no Democratic day at its fair. Peoples Party day will be Thursday and Republican day Friday.

-A doll couchave is being held in the window of M. D. Good & Co.'s store. It seems to be an extensive affair as about 300 are in attendance.

-The Abilene friends of Schuyler Pettit will be interested to know of his marriage Thursday evening to Miss Ada Brossious, of Hays City. Good. wishes will be extended the young people.

-The Ladies Columbian club of Dickinson county will fill 12 dozen small glasses with jelly for the World's Fair. But how far will 12 dezen glasses of jelly go in that jam?-[Lawrence Record.

-The unique window display of "comfort prints" at M. D. Good & ger Hawk says the prices attract yet more attention when the customers get inside the store.

-The prizes offered by the State Firemen's association are open to all ent: and the Abilene Fire department expects to keep part of them here. The boys are practicing every evening and getting in good running shape. -Henry Kauffman, of Buckeye township, bought today of Pisie & Fisher three "Solid Comfort" sulky plows. Mr. Kauffman is one of Buck eye township's most prosperous farmers and knows a good thing when he sees

-Sneak thieves are abroad again. Mrs. D. W. Howard lost two dozen fine spring chickens this week and D. Piste a quantity of time grapes. People should had up their shotgors | Pennsylvanians Will Meet Hera in and be prepared to give the first man caught a dose he will remember.

-The Republican Central committee held a meeting Saturday afternoon. In addition to other business G. W. C. Rehrer was elected secretary of the is a hustler and will do his best to pile up votes for the ticket.

-The Burton family had its annual reunion at Mitchell, Ind., last Friday. There were about 7,000 Burtens present out of the 140,000 in America. Next year one of the family's most illustrious members will be congressmatelect for the Fifth Kansas district.

-The high school room matter has used last year will be continued as before and all the high school will have seats there. The east room will be a Democrat, kind of ex parte, semi-occasional recitation room, used when the Fire department is not in executive session. -The old street car track left town this afternoon for Dillou, to be used track from the gypsum beds to the depot. The old track could tell many at a tale if it would of boom days that ber of people are glad that it will keep
